Review of Activities

President's Message

This year has been very successful in terms of the increased number of member activities and the introduction of new programs. Financially the Association has had one of its most satisfying years in recent times, with a surplus of over $20,000.

We organised 20 events during the year covering a diverse range of topics. We have had many highlights, including the Current Issues in Contract conference held on Friday, 27 July in conjunction with the Parsons Centre, Law Faculty, University of Sydney. A total of 80 delegates attended the one-day event. Due to the success of this event the CLA and the Centre will be holding another combined event on Friday, 1 August 2008.

Our regular lunchtime series also attracted strong support and confirmed that this series remains very popular with our members. Half-day seminars attracted good attendances, in particular, the IP seminar with Scott Bouvier, Partner, Mallesons Stephen Jaques; Dianne Beer, Partner, Holding Redlich; Carmen Champion, Barrister and Mark Allen, Partner, Bartier Perry.

We also held two Aged Services seminars during 2007. On Thursday, 19 April the topic in Melbourne was 'Navigating the retirement village and aged care maze. Trends pitfalls and opportunities' and on Friday, 2 November 2007 in Sydney the seminar was 'Affordable housing in aged care and retirement villages'. Special thanks to Gadens and RetireInvest for their support with the organisation of both these seminars.

On Thursday, 15 November a joint presentation, 'Diversity: making it work for everyone', with Bartier Perry created great interest. Speakers included Jo Scard, Melissa Doyle and Susan Price.

I would like to thank all our speakers, commentators and chairs for their valuable contribution. Over 40 leading practitioners and business identities presented in our seminar program.

A highlight was making Professor John Carter a Life Member of the Association at a General Meeting held on Wednesday, 28 November 2007. Professor Carter has made an outstanding contribution over many years to the Association, both as committee member and speaker.

Vice President Kalinda Cobby who oversees our Associates/New Graduates program and Emma Toshack who joined us towards the end of the year as our New Graduates Co-ordinator have worked very hard to expand the program. Emma will be implementing a number of new projects in 2008.

Throughout the year the Legislative Review Task Force has been active in legislative review, promoting public comment and discussion through meetings and workshops. Thanks to Committee Chairman Tony Dreise, Deputy Chairman Dr John Keogh and Secretary Daren Armstrong for their contribution to the LRTF.

Finally, I would like to thank Hon Treasurer David O'Bryen and all the directors for their commitment to the work of the Association. Unfortunately work pressures meant we had to farewell Daren Armstrong and Leo Gor from the board. I thank them for their input and am sure they will remain strong supporters of the Association. Also thanks to our CEO Max Wilson whose input to all aspects of the Association's activities is highly regarded and has been critical to the Association's success as a niche seminar provider.

Finally, a big thank you goes to all Association members and we look forward to your ongoing support.

Stephen Lamy

Chief Executive Officers' Report

The highlights of this year included the increased number of seminars and events, the continued excellence of the Commercial Law Quarterly, strong member participation in the activities of the Association and continued sponsor support.

This year's financial result showed a surplus of $21,168 compared with a small deficit of $3,187 in 2006. The surplus is largely attributable to the success of some of our larger events including the 'Current Issues in Contract Law' conference held on 27 July 2008.

Our alliance with the International Law Section of the Law Council of Australia saw the continuation of our successful International Series of Seminars. Andrew Percival co-ordinated the program.

In conjunction with Gadens Lawyers and RetireInvest we held two half-day seminars on aged services. 'Navigating the aged care maze' was the topic for our Melbourne seminar held in April and 'Affordable aged housing' was the topic for our Sydney seminar held in November.

During the year we worked in co-operation with some other organisations to develop special one-day conferences. Thank you to our alliance partner The Parsons Centre, University of Sydney for assistance with the organisation of the July 'Current Issues in Contract Law' conference and to the sponsors of this event — Commonwealth Bank of Australia, Freehills and LexisNexis.

Finsia and the CLA worked together to organise a Banking Law seminar held in October. Thanks also to sponsors Henry Davis York and Key Media, publishers of the ALB magazine for their support.

Dr Elisabeth Peden and Gregory Tolhurst have continued to maintain the high standard of the Association's flagship publication, the Commercial Law Quarterly. Thank you also to the many contributors for the excellent articles which are a feature of the journal. Thanks also to Liz Wilson for graphic design.

Further improvements to our website were progressively introduced during the year. Thank you to Kevin Tang and Carol Chin of I-Can Solutions for their dedicated support in overseeing the development and maintenance of the CLA website

The Association has had another busy year and the support of sponsors and alliance partners has been of tremendous assistance. I would like to take the opportunity to thank sponsors not mentioned previously, who have included Thomson Publications, Cypress Lakes Group, Peugeot, Kemp Strang, Corrs Chambers Westgarth and Hicksons Lawyers.

I would also like to thank the President Stephen Lamy, Vice President Kalinda Cobby, Honorary Treasurer David O'Bryen, Membership and Publications Chairs Stephen McMahon and Rick Porter, and all other directors for their support over a most challenging year.

1. Statement of Accounting Policies

The financial statements are general purpose financial reports that have been prepared in accordance with Accounting Standards, Urgent Issues Group Consensus Views and other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board. The financial statements have also been prepared on an accruals basis and are based on historical costs and do not take into account changing money values or, except where stated current valuations of non-current assets. Cost is based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets. The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the company in the preparation of the financial statements. The accounting policies have been consistently applied, unless otherwise stated.

- (a) Depreciation. The depreciable amount of plant and equipment is depreciated on a diminishing value basis over its useful life to the company commencing from the time the asset is held for use.
- (b) Inventories. All inventories have been valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value and have been classified as current assets based on expected use.
- (c) Income Tax. A ruling that The Commercial Law Association of Australia Ltd is exempt from income tax has been received from the Australian Taxation Office and consequently income tax has not been provided for in the accounts.
- (d) Employee Entitlements. As at balance date The Commercial Law Association of Australia Ltd had no employees and as a result there is no Provision for Employee Benefit provided for in the accounts.
