President and Directors' Report

2013: YEAR IN REVIEW

This is my second year as President and I would like to thank all Directors for their support. It has been a most successful year for the CLA with record numbers attending our seminars and special events. Our list of seminars and presenters is too long to mention here. A comprehensive list of our activities and photos is featured in the following pages.

During 2013 Farid Assaf (1) resigned as Director. Farid joined the board in 2012. He chaired Justice Ashley Black's presentation on practice in the Corporations List in the Supreme Court of NSW for our June Judges Series. The CLA formally acknowledges the work that was undertaken by Farid Assaf as a Director.

Our 2013 CLA Mandatory CLE seminar for Practitioners, held in conjunction with the University of Notre Dame Australia proved very popular. Professor Gerard Ryan was once again the Chair with speakers including Associate Professor Sandra Lynch, Prasan Ulluwishewa and Robert Pelletier.

We were also delighted to be able to offer two special annual lunchtime seminars — Jeffrey Goldberger with his contract cases review in February and Russell Miller AM with his March update on Australian Consumer Law.

In March the CLA also held the inaugural Property and Planning Law Conference which was chaired by Justice Rachel Pepper (2) of the Land and Environment Court of NSW. The conference attracted interest from throughout NSW with many practitioners from regional centres also attending. Given the positive feedback we received we expect to make the Property and Planning Law Conference an annual event.

Professor John Carter provided our opening seminar for the new CLE year in May. The topic 'Construction of Commercial Contracts attracted widespread interest which was reflected in the large numbers of practitioners who attended.

In August our Navigating the Changing Privacy Landscape halfday seminar exceeded all expectations with over 40 attendees and our October Class Actions seminar, held in conjunction with Slater & Gordon, also attracted great interest and record numbers.

The success of this seminar was largely due to the work undertaken by members of the LRTF in developing the program and gaining eminent speakers such as Professor Rosalind Croucher (3), President of the Law Reform Commission and Professor Graham Greenleaf AM (4), Professor of Law & Information Systems at the University of NSW and Co-chair of AustLii.

The final event for 2013 was our Restitution, Equity & Statutory Liability Conference held in conjunction with the Australian National University (ANU). The conference featured prominent academics from the ANU and an impressive list of Judges and legal practitioners who all shared some links with the ANU. This is the first time we have joined forces with ANU in running a one-day conference and we were delighted by the results. We would especially like to thank Associate Professor Pauline Ridge (5) for her assistance in developing the program.

The Association once again was a Sponsor of the Sydney Postgraduate Law Conference 2013. The conference is one of Sydney Law School's major annual events, providing postgraduate students from across the region with the opportunity of presenting their research to academic staff from the University of Sydney Law School and other faculties within the University.

The success of the CLA is largely due to the support of many individuals from those who serve on the Board, committees and special interest groups to those who volunteer as guest speakers at seminars, contribute papers to the Commercial Law Quarterly or who support the Association by attending our seminars and events. If you are interested in participating in any of the CLA's activities please contact our CEO Max Wilson.

FINANCE. The CLA achieved a significant surplus of funds in 2013 — $57,595. To view the audited financial reports for 2013 visit the CLA members' section.

An important element of the Association's image is to ensure that marketing assists in attracting Legal practitioners and those involved in commerce to our Association's activities. By promoting our seminar programs and other programs we aim to encourage people to join the Association. Listening to our members and reacting to their needs is also very important in maintaining membership. During 2013 our discussion group on LinkedIn grew to over 600 members. This year we launched a successful membership campaign with Bannisters in Mollymook.
